

DIDCOT ANTIQUES MARKET TO TRANSFER TO DRAYTON, NEAR ABINGDON, OXFORDSHIRE

Didcot Civic Hall is closing for refurbishment in August 2010 and we have been told that it will not be open for use until March 2011. This means that we shall lose six of our monthly winter Antiques Markets.

We have decided to transfer this market to Drayton Village Hall near Abingdon for the second Sunday of October, November and December 2010. It will be remembered that Jay Fairs was at Drayton for many years before we took over our Benson fair, held on the same third Sunday of the month.

We would like to confirm our bookings for October 10th, November 14th and December 12th, 2010 and look forward to planning the second Sundays of the early months of 2011.

Jill and Joy
21st March 2010